Road Embankment Case Study

Introduction

This paper uses a case study of road embankment failure near Pentalia in southwest Cyprus to review the available tools for the analysis of slope instability. Both Slide and Phase2 were used to analyze the stability of the embankment.

Slide model of failed road embankment

For details see the following paper:

A Road Embankment Failure Near Pentalia In Southwest Cyprus